The Joe Bunting Mentorship Award was established to recognize the importance of mentorship to our community. To quote Joe from an article in ASPHALTopics, “You learn fairly early on in your career that your success depends on the success of others and I have always valued the opportunity to hire young people, to be their mentor and share in their achievements.” This award not only honours Joe but turns a spotlight on those people in our industry that take the time to teach, inspire and encourage tomorrow’s leaders of our industry.

QUALIFICATION OF NOMINEES

• Be a member in good standing with OAPC.
• Or have retired from the Hot Mix Asphalt industry, but had been employed by an OAPC member company at one point in their career.

DOCUMENTATION

Attach a typed detailed description highlighting the candidate’s volunteer work with OAPC. The Awards Committee will be looking for nominations of an individual who has demonstrated a commitment to mentoring activities either within their workplace or in the Council.

SPECIAL NOTE

OAPC encourages member companies to distribute the Joe Bunting Mentorship Award nomination form to all staff.
The Dr. Norman McLeod Award for Innovation was named in honour of Dr. Norman McLeod, Canada’s most accomplished asphalt innovator. The purpose of the award is to highlight the innovative work of those involved in the Hot Mix Asphalt industry.

QUALIFICATION OF NOMINEES

- Be actively involved in the asphalt industry in North America with direct benefit for the asphalt industry in Ontario.
- The candidate does not have to be a member of the Council.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

- The Awards Committee will be looking for nominations of an individual that recognizes his/her innovation and/or research achievements, whether for a singular achievement or derived from a body of work.
- Innovations should go far beyond marginal improvements in existing products and services.

DOCUMENTATION

Attach a typed detailed description highlighting the candidate’s individual innovative achievement or his/her body of work as evidence of achievement.
There’s no abiding success without commitment. – TONY ROBBINS

THE “BLEEDS BLACK” AWARD

The purpose of the “Bleeds Black” Award is to highlight the passion and commitment of individuals to the superiority of asphalt as the pavement of choice in Ontario. The Council credits the words of Tim Fawcett, past OHMPA director, who said when describing an individual “whose passion and commitment for all things asphalt is so great that when cut, they bleed black.” – March 6, 2013 Annual General Meeting.

QUALIFICATION OF NOMINEES

• Be actively involved in the asphalt industry in North America with direct benefit for the asphalt industry in Ontario.
• The candidate does not have to be a member of the Association.

DOCUMENTATION

• Attach a typed detailed description highlighting the candidate’s passion and commitment to the superiority of asphalt as the pavement of choice in Ontario.

The Awards Committee is looking for the person, who is not merely interested, but passionate and enthusiastic about asphalt as the pavement of choice in Ontario. That person who stands out above the rest. That person who stands out above the rest.
